Grade 1-Penny and Pals. Award-winning original music of Penny Adrist and Gale Benson. The program focuses on the theme of "A Very Good Me". The team uses very colorful costumed characters and a very energetic and engaging style with audience participation. Moorhead Theater March 9 & 10.

Grade 2 –The presentation "Ukrainian Kaleidoscope" will be presented to all 2nd grade students. Sergei Shapoval, an internationally known artist in Ukraine culture, presently resides in Kansas City, Missouri and is a featured artist of the organization "The Cultural Kaleidoscope". Students will have an opportunity to experience music, dance and a wide variety of cultural activities in this presentation.. South High Theatre, October 11 & 12.

Grade 3 — Concordia College Percussion Ensemble. This exciting percussion ensemble, under the direction of David Eyler, percussion artist and professor at Concordia College, has become an exciting addition to our series and we look forward to working together with Dr. Eyler in the future. Memorial auditorium, Concordia, April 8

Grade 4 - "Young People's Concert" is sponsored by the FM Symphony and will draw 4th grade music students from the three school districts. This is always an exceptional program. The FM Symphony is to be commended for its efforts to provide quality children's programming year after year. Memorial Auditorium, Concordia, February, 24

Grade 5 - The Jazz Arts Big Band (JAG) will be making their tenth appearance in the Fine Arts Series. This ensemble is comprised of the finest jazz musicians in our region and has been very successful in presenting a history of jazz to students in our instrumental programs. This presentation continues to provide a unique and new experience for all fifth grades students. South High Theatre, January 19th.

Grade 6 — The presentation "Russian Kaleidoscope" will be presented to all 6th grade students. Sergei Shapoval, an internationally known artist in Russian culture, presently resides in Kansas City, Missouri and is a featured artist of the organization "The Cultural Kaleidoscope". Students will have an opportunity to experience music, dance and a wide variety of cultural activities in this presentation. South High Theatre. October 13 & 14.
